About Leticia: Leticia is an accomplished and seasoned leader. In her recent election to the Central Basin Municipal Water District on June 5th 2012, it was her discipline and focus on reform and common sense that resonated with voters. Leticia has served on the Lynwood City Council from 2003-2007 and in 2006 made history as the city's first Latina Mayor. At present, she is an elected member of the Faculty Association and the Faculty Council at El Camino College Compton Center, and a community college professor. She is also an adjunct instructor at National University where she teaches graduate level courses in Public Administration. Leticia holds a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice, Master's Degree in Public Policy & Administration in Urban Affairs and a Master's Degree in Education from Pepperdine University in Malibu, CA. In her spare time, she grows tomatoes and jalapeño peppers for her home made salsa and hikes the Baldwin Hills Scenic Overlook. For more information on Leticia visit www.leticiavasquez.com
